

Team YANTSU Newsletter

Week of 11/6-11/12

Synopsis

This week was a major success for Team YANTSU. On November 6, 2011, Team YANTSU planned out exactly what they wanted for the show this year. Eight out of nine members attended the meeting with Miley being absent. The team spent one hour and fifteen minutes in their meeting and got a mass amount of work done. Due to a new ruling in the YANTSU Code of Conduct, information pertaining to the meetings is to not be released to the public, so that the audience of the TrackingSanta show gets a great effect and does not know information ahead of time. Another addition to the week was the banning of Tomsmith0002 from Team YANTSU due to issues pertaining with Ganon136 and an account created under his real name. Due to it being a YANTSU meeting topic, no more information based on the verdict of the process will be released.

Member of the Week

Every week, a member will have a spotlight page below once due to the amount of members we have. Since there is only seven weeks left until December 24, everyone will get a chance at the title.

This week's "Member of the Week" is Liam Warden AKA MrDynamatic!!!

MrDynamatic was chosen due to his contributions this week on promoting the show very hard his first week on Team YANTSU. For not being around that long, that is a huge accomplishment.

Congratulations Liam!

December 24

This is it. This is the biggest day of the year for Team YANTSU. Your task is going to be a very important job towards the team's effort to get the "project" done. This is the third year doing this and Team YANTSU is almost ready for another year. Be prepared over the next two to three weeks on obtaining information regarding videos in the month of December because there is a lot of important information that is involved in the process. You will be assigned tasks towards the end of November and be prepared to ask your family what your schedule will be for December 24 at about December 20. There will also be sign-up sheets this year where you will type in specific information for the schedules and you will be able to e-mail the information to Ganon136. If we do not schedule you, you cannot participate in the show as a host/information person. This is very important for everyone to understand for this year due to the complexity of becoming more and more professional every year.

Thanks,
Patric/Ganon136
Team YANTSU 2009-2011
