

Team YANTSU Newsletter

Week of 11/21-11/25

Synopsis

This past week has been a tough one while finishing up for the planning of the 2011 TrackingSanta show. At the current moment, the planning for the show is right on time and the stage is set for a great tracking year with host Ganon136 on December 24, 2011. Times are still in the work, but the show will start at 8AM EST for certain. The reason the times are being debated currently is the want for a possible pre-show from December 24 at 12AM EST until about 7:30AM EST and then continuing at 8AM EST until 11PM EST. All of this will be dealing with Patric's schedule at the current time.

Member of the Week

Every week, a member will have a spotlight page below once due to the amount of members we have. Since there is only seven weeks left until December 24, everyone will get a chance at the title.

This week's "Member of the Week" is Luke AKA cpauthors!!!

Luke was chosen for his great efforts of getting planning done during this week and inviting a new member to the team. Thanks for your work...

Congratulations Luke!

December 24

The show is only four weeks away and the final stages of planning will begin within these next three weeks. We want as many YANTSU members to attend all the meetings within these next 3-4 weeks. It has been a long journey of planning since we started in July, but we are almost there. Keep an eye on your YouTube inboxes for scripts for the start-of-show video and get recording on those as soon as possible. The best way to record those is to say your lines, pause for a second or two, then say your next line. If you send one video file, it makes it easier on me. Also pay attention to the dates given in this newsletter.

Thanks,

Patric/Ganon136

Team YANTSU 2009-2011
