

Team YANTSU Newsletter

November 12, 2012

Synopsis

As hoped for, the team is still WAY ahead of schedule for the 2012 tracking season. Team YANTSU has also added four new members to the team as of November 10, 2012. These members include James R, James H, Thomas, and John-Luke. Best of luck to all new four members and we hope to see what you are capable of this year. NORAD has released a lot such as their 2012 trailer and they have also released their splash page, and with a simple link change, our team has also cracked into the main website before anyone else. The November 10th meeting was very successful and the team got a lot of work done after catching up from the missed October 20th meeting. Thanks for all your support of our team, our website, and our social media. If anyone wants us to cover a topic, please send a message to Ganon136 or Elezb101 so we can add that to our next meeting agenda. We apologize for not having a Nov. 1st newsletter as hoped for.

Featured Members

The first featured members of the 2012 tracking season are the members of TheSantaTrackers: Thomas, James H, and John-Luke. They have supported the group very well within two days and have impressed the group a lot.

Stay up-to-date with NORAD information as well as Team YANTSU by frequently visiting <http://trackingsanta.weebly.com/> throughout the rest of the year as we approach Christmas.

December 24

December 24 is now officially 41 days away as of today: November 12, 2012. There is work still to be done in video scripting, advertisements, and production of the Start of Show video for the show this year. Keep working hard as the show gets closer day by day.

Almost there,
Patric/Ganon136
Head of Team YANTSU 2011-2012
