

Team YANTSU Newsletter

December 12, 2013

Synopsis

We are now less than two weeks away from the big day and Team YANTSU is making their final meeting and schedule plans to wrap up productions for 2013. The daily grind of developing the website, posting the news, and keeping you updated has consistently kept us busy throughout the past few days and will continue to be this way until December 24. You should expect some new content on our website almost daily soon, so make sure you check back frequently to stay caught up on the best Team YANTSU content. We are currently working with US Allegiance Inc, the company who produces NTS merchandise, in a deal for all show viewers this December 24. This is still in development and we will let you know more as we get that information for you. You will receive a bonus item in your package after receiving a code which you will redeem most likely at checkout for your purchase which may or may not give you a discount. Make sure to stay tuned throughout the weekend for more Team YANTSU information as it becomes available at

To track Santa with Team YANTSU, go to <http://bit.ly/182OT0n> where we will be streaming all day on December 24 from 8AM-11PM EST live on UStream.TV. You will be able to watch everything also on our website at the "TRACK SANTA LIVE 2013" tab available here. Hosts from the US and Canada will keep you occupied throughout the day and night telling you Santa's location.

Member of the Week

The Member of the Week now is actually two brothers of Team YANTSU. Please give it up for James and Thomas Heaney! These two have become Santa tracking experts as part of TheSantaTrackers before joining Team YANTSU in 2012. They set up an annual HQ every year, are hosting professionals, and also provide Weebly locations on December 24. Thanks guys!

December 24

December 24 is now officially 12 days and Team YANTSU is pushing it to our limits to get everything ready on time. With just about 280 hours left until the big show (at the time this is being typed), Team YANTSU is making sure the trees are up, the stockings are stuffed, the lights are on, and the cameras are ready to roll. Make sure you don't miss out on our big broadcast this December 24 by visiting us on Ustream.TV for the big show. Thanks and Happy Holidays to all!

Make sure you do not forget to donate to Toys for Tots and the Salvation Army this holiday season for those less fortunate.

T4T Meetup Flight

MrAviation101 and PremiereAviationHD on YouTube are holding a Toys For Tots Meetup Flight in the Dallas, Texas area for there local Toys for Tots! The airfield they are flying to is the Dallas Executive Airport (KRBD/RBD). Check out the website listed to help send some love their way or if you live nearby, make sure to stop in and help them out...
