December 12, 2012

Synopsis

Team YANTSU is still on schedule with the show in almost a week and a half. The team is wrapping up all planning and beginning review starting this weekend at the second December meeting for Team YANTSU. We are looking forward to a great show this year and a great day tracking Santa on his journey around the world. There will be just a few final videos being released soon from the team in the final stages of the preparations for this great day. Team YANTSU members, remember to have your start-of-show footage all completed and sent in by this Saturday. Remember that if you are doing press releases, to send them in to Patric from proof reading. He will get those back to you ASAP, so you can send them off to your media of choice. This Saturday's meeting is from 3-4PM EST, so make plans to attend the meeting this week. Last week had a poor turnout and we want to see all of you there and giving your opinion because there are important topics to be voted on at this meeting. With only two issues of the newsletter left this year, we want to thank you for an awesome year of planning, prepping, and enthusiasm to make sure that this year's show is the best that it can be.
