November 16, 2012

Synopsis

Once again, the team is still ahead of schedule as planned. With almost one month left until we track Santa again, Team YANTSU is working on releasing advertisements as soon as they are finished. Our new members have continued to work very hard to help prepare for the show. Team YANTSU is very excited to show you what's in store, but you will have to wait and find out by coming by the show on December 24. The NORAD website opens in about 14 days on December 1 with games and activities to do throughout that month. Team YANTSU will be having a short briefing meeting on the same night as the Press Release Workshop on Friday, November 23, so make sure you can all attend this important briefing. Most likely there will be a meeting every Saturday in December plus a meeting on Friday, December 21 (more details will be given at the final November meeting). Thanks for all your support of our team, our website, and our social media. If anyone wants us to cover a topic, please send a message to Ganon136 or Elezb101 so we can add that to our next meeting agenda.

Stay up-to-date with NORAD information as well as Team YANTSU by frequently visiting <http://trackingsanta.weebly.com/> throughout the rest of the year as we approach Christmas.

With Christmas on its way, don't forget to donate to those who are less fortunate. Bring in donations to Toys for Tots or the Salvation Army during the holiday season. Remember that just a little bit can go a long way.

December 24

December 24 is now officially 37 days away as of today: November 16, 2012. There are still videos that are being completed as well as scripting for some upcoming videos as well. Keep working hard team. We are almost a month away from the show and it will be here before you know it.

Almost there,
