October 29, 2013

Synopsis

With Halloween here at our doorstep and the Christmas chill sweeping down our backs, it's time we get in to gear.

Especially now that NORAD has released their first video of 2013! To see the video, click the link below...

Our meeting on October 26th and 27th went surprisingly well and we expect a lot of work out of you guys over the next two months. To all of our new members, this is where you learn about what Team YANTSU can be capable of in a short amount of time. Last year, Team YANTSU pushed out SEVERAL trailers during October, November, and December to promote all events and the TrackingSanta Live Show. It was a successful advertising campaign and we plan on doing it throughout November so keep an eye out for that. Everyone enjoy your Halloween holiday safely and make sure to stay healthy as we prepare for the most wonderful time of the year once again. All members need to check the Team YANTSU Facebook daily starting now since NORAD is finally posting content for NORAD Tracks Santa and we do not know what to expect. Keep an eye out for dates for events and meetings, and make sure you mark your calendars so you can attend those.

Thanks,
Patric

The Member of the Week

This week we feature Team YANTSU member Kenny Van Yperen! Kenny specializes in top notch Team YANTSU uploading, tracking skills, and is probably our number one consumer of eggnog for the team if you ask one of our members. Kenny has been a major asset to the team and definitely does not let us down every year with his after-show streams after Patric ends his usual hosting. Thanks for your dedication, Kenny!

December 24

December 24 is now officially 55 days away! Team YANTSU is getting pumped up with the release of today's NORAD video and we are working around the clock to update you with everything they are releasing and we will be talking with NORAD very soon to see what they have in store for us. The stores are already selling a lot of holiday items so you can go get shopping done early this year if you want and put up the decorations. We hope you stay safe this holiday season and stay tuned for more Team YANTSU news.

Team YANTSU Fun Facts
